

Candyman

Come on now people and gather 'round; the good sweet Candyman's in town
His candy stash do n't melt away; it just gets better so they all say

BRIDGE

Brings you up; brings you down; strings you out if he can't come around
I know you; he knows me; so I'll ask; and we'll see . . .

A while ago and not far from here; my best friend died I shed a tear
It was the candyman's work is what I heard; 'cause my friend's dead and he wrote no word

BRIDGE

Brings you up; brings you down; strings you out if he can't come around
I know you; he knows me; so I'll ask; and we'll see . . .

LEAD SOLO

Sister thought his candy stick was bad; but the very next day she took all he had
You try his candy girl friends of mine; and you sure might want it for a long long time

BRIDGE

Brings you up; brings you down; strings you out if he can't come around
I know you; he know me; so I'll ask; and we'll see . . .
