

Pretty Feet

Sherman Keene

Mama mama look at Uncle Joe
He's doing the Hand Jive low and slow
Mama mama look at Uncle Joe
Showin' 'em the way the Hand Jive go

Baby baby got famous you see
Doin' the Hand Jive on TV

*And this is a song I wrote about people who dig on feet, you know
That, that-a, (Mama Mama look at me go) that dig to have their toes
(Mama Mama your pretty feet, the way you use 'em it sure it neat) Dug on—you know what I mean?*

Keep a-walkin'
Keep a-walkin', heh
When you wear shoes it sure gives me the blues

Now I see you walking down the street and All I can see is your feet

You keep a-walkin'
You keep a-walkin'
'Cause when you wear shoes it sure gives me the blues

My baby never wear no shoes

She knows that gives me the blues

She keeps a-walkin'

She keeps a-walkin'

'Cause when she wear shoes she know it gives me the blues

Guitar solo

Now some folks look for the pretty clothes

Me I look for the pretty toes

They keep a-walkin'

A bear footin'

When you wear shoes that gives me the blues

Now you might be dressed when I meet you

But your feet'll be naked before I'm through

Keep a-walkin'

Keep a-walkin'

When you wear shoes it sure gives me the blues

I say you wear shoes it sure gives me the blues
